

Call for Application:

ASEAN in Today's World 2022 (AsTW 2022)

Dear Partners,

Greetings from the Kyushu University, Fukuoka, Japan!

We proudly announce that the Kyushu University (Japan) and the Mahidol University (Thailand) will host the 14th ASEAN in Today's World (AsTW) 2022.

AsTW is a two-week study program at the undergraduate level, designed to deepen understandings of ASEAN and East Asian affairs. Since 2009, the Kyushu University has organized the program with our partner universities in ASEAN countries, in cooperation with the ASEAN Secretariat and the ASEAN University Network (AUN).

Since Covid-19 is still far from being under control in many countries, AsTW 2022 will be held ONLINE from March 7 to 18, 2022. We welcome applicants from ASEAN countries and the rest of the world. The medium of instruction is English. The Kyushu University provides scholarships for the selected participants mainly from ASEAN countries.
